Press Release

March 14, 2011

Greenville, South Carolina

Greenville & Western Railway Company, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Western Carolina Railway Service Corporation, will be rebuilding the Calhoun Road (in Belton) and Horace Bell Road (near Honea Path) rail-highway grade crossings during the week of March 21-25, 2011.

It is anticipated that the Calhoun Road crossing will be closed for approximately three days beginning March 21 and extending through March 23. During this brief road closure, motorists should use Mahaffey Street (to the south of Calhoun Road) as a detour route between SC Highway 20 and Calhoun Road.

It is anticipated that the Horace Bell Road crossing will be closed for approximately three days beginning March 22 and extending through March 24. During this brief road closure, motorists should use Simpson Road (to the north of Horace Bell Road) as a detour route between US 178 / US 76 and Simpson Road.

Greenville & Western Railway thanks the public in advance for their patience and understanding during these temporary road closures.
